BIBA GUIDE

To Locally Owned Independent Businesses in Boulder County

Spring/Summer 2002

BOULDER INDEPENDENT BUSINESS ALLIANCE

Seeds of Change

The Boulder Independent Business Alliance (BIBA) is a cooperative effort among locally owned independent businesses to create a healthy local economy while maintaining the unique character that helps make Boulder County great.

BIBA addresses the increasing loss of community-based businesses by working to support the community and reverse national trends of absentee-owned businesses displacing locals. We create support between local businesses and the community, facilitating collaborative efforts among members, raising public awareness of the benefits of doing local business, and advancing policies that support our local businesses.

We work with the new American Independent Business Alliance, launched by BIBA's founders, to help other communities create IBA's and share resources among them. Visit www.AMIBA.net to learn more.

BIBA businesses are owned and operated by your neighbors! The next time you're choosing where to take your business, look for the BIBA logo for service, quality, and value.

Thank you for patronizing locally owned independent business! For more information please call 720-565-3854, stop by our new office (upstairs in the University Lutheran Student Services Center bldg. on Folsom at Colorado), or e-mail us at: info@boulder-iba.org

Join BIBA!

The semi-annual BIBA Guide and our new website are used by thousands of local residents and owners who look to do their business locally. Put your business in front of over 15,000 potential customers for an entire year, plus gain the additional advantages of BIBA membership at a surprisingly low cost!

Call or e-mail us for a free information brochure: 720-565-3854 or info@Boulder-iba.org.

Organically Grown, Community Owned

The Boulder Co-op Market grew out of an effort to save one of Boulder's last locally owned groceries. Just as BIBA businesses act cooperatively, Boulder community members have realized the full potential of working together. Now the dream is a reality, with a new market opening in May.

Membership in the Co-op guarantees you a voice in the movement to reclaim democracy in the body of our community and offers you an opportunity to keep your money where your home is.

Support a healthy community.

Individual, Joint, and Lifetime memberships are available with the Co-op, please call for details.
